THE "FACSIMILE" PRINTING PROCESS.

[BYFORD'S PATENT.]

By this novel invention a number of Fac-simile copies of Circulars, Price Lists, Drawings, &c., written with the Patent Ink, are printed in a few minutes on any kind of dry paper with the aid of the ordinary Copying Press, the original writing remaining uninjured. The process has been for some time in operation in the Board of Trade, the Science and Art Department, South Kensington Museum, and many of the principal Railway and other Public Companies' Offices, where it has been thoroughly tested and found most useful and efficient. The simplicity of working and the clearness and exactitude of the copies produced render the invention most valuable in all cases where economy of time and labour is an object. It is specially suited to the requirements of Brokers, Merchants, Railway Companies, Solicitors, and others who require copies of documents produced more speedily than they can be by ordinary printing.

The cost is nominal, the only apparatus required [beyond the appliances found in every counting-house] being the Printing Folio, Transfer Paper, and the Patent Ink.

The apparatus consists of the printing pad, a supply of transfer paper, a bottle of patent ink, the impression plate, and a damping brush of improved construction.

Letter A, to print letter size [or less]. Cash, complete	Rs. 25
Do. B. ,, foolscap size ,, ,,	,, 35

THE PAPYROGRAPH,

INVALUABLE FOR OFFICIAL, MERCANTILE, AND FOR GENERAL USE, EASY, CHEAP, CLEANLY AND RAPID IN EXECUTION.

By this Process 500 or more Permanent Facsimile Impressions of CIRCULARS, DESIGNS, OFFICE FORMS, PRICES CURRENT, MARKET REPORTS, MUSIC, PROGRAMMES, MENUS, &c., &c., MAY BE RAPIDLY AND CHEAPLY PRINTED IN AN ORDINARY COPYING PRESS.

The process is simple, economical, and cleanly, and may be easily worked by a Native Assistant.

The process is already in use in some hundreds of Public and Private Offices, including the INDIA OFFICE, the HORSE GUARDS, the P. & O. STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY, various Railways, Banks, &c., and has proved an undoubted success.

The Operations are very easily learnt, and are very cleanly. The Original Outlay is soon recouped to the purchaser by the saving in printers' and lithographers' bills, and where secrecy is required the process will be found invaluable.

MONDAY EVENING, JAN. 31, 1881.

In the closing telegrams from London of Saturday's date there is nothing which we have not already noticed.

The bank of Bombay return for the week ending on Saturday shows the following changes :—

Public Deposits at H. O.	Inc.	Rs.26,62,976
Do. do. Branches	Inc.	„ 3,08,716
Other Deposits	Dec.	„ 9,76
Government Securities	Inc.	„ 6,78,854
Loans	Dec.	„ 6,41,595
Bills Discounted	Inc.	„ 16,29,940
Cash with Correspondents	Dec.	„ 4,30,249
Cash and Currency Notes	Inc.	„ 16,58,178

The increase in the Cash Balance, arising as it does entirely from the Government account, cannot be taken as any indication of easier money. On the contrary, the trade demand is steadily gaining ground, and although there is little probability of any movement in the bank's rates of discount for some little time, the general tendency of the market is unquestionably in that direction.

EXCHANGE to-day opened with an advance of 1-32d. on Saturday's closing rates, and for a time it seemed probable that nothing more than this would be established. With steady advices from Calcutta, however, and rather more paper offering here, a further rise of 1-32d. took place during the afternoon, and we now close firm at the following quotations for ready bills :—

Bank Bills on demand	Is. 7 9-16d.	per Re.
Do. telegraphic	Is. 7 ¼d.	„
Do. 3 months' sight	Is. 7 23-32d.	„
Credits, 3 „ „	Is. 7 29-32d.	„
Documents, 3 „ „	Is. 7 15-16d.	„
Francs, 3 „ „	2f. 10½c.	„

On Calcutta we still quote demand drafts at 1-16 to ⅛ per cent. premium.

GOVERNMENT PAPER to-day has again been firmer, and business has been done—although not to any great amount—at an advance of ¼, say :—Fours, Rs. 100¾ ; Fours-and-a-half, Rs. 108¾. The Share Market has been without change of any kind, with the one exception of Spinning and Weaving shares, which are in request at an advance of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per share. The rapid decline which has taken place in Cotton, coupled with an active demand for Yarns from China, places the industry in a very favourable position, and the mills now are all working with a good margin for profit.

COTTON to-day has undergone a further partial decline of Re. 1 per candy owing to the weaker advices from New York of Saturday's date ; but the reduction has brought out buyers, and a considerable business has been done. Weak as the market looks—and there can be no doubt that the surroundings at the moment are very weak—a general feeling appears to prevail that we are not far off a reaction, and sellers are therefore very conservative in their action. We quote :—

Good Hingunghaut, February	Rs.	225	per candy.
Good Omra	„	214	„
F. G. F.	„	202	„
G. F.	„	202	„
Good Broach, March	„	231	„
Good Hollera, April	„	212	„

SEEDS.—Linseed is quiet at Rs. 6-5 to Rs. 6-7 for ready, and Rs. 6-3½ per cwt. is reported to have been done for April-May delivery. Rapeseed is quoted at Rs. 5-11 per cwt. for New Guzerat, May delivery.

WHEAT is quiet at Rs. 33 per candy for Soft White ready, and Rs. 29 for May delivery.

FREIGHTS are the turn steadier owing to the postponement of the increase in the G. I. P. Railway rates of carriage until 1st May, and the possibility that the Government may require two or three steamers for the conveyance of troops to Natal. For Liverpool 33s. 9d. to 35s. is the quotation, and for the Mediterranean ports rates are unaltered. Steamship owners at home, however, decline to fix their boats under 40s., U. K. or Continent.

PIECE-GOODS are firm. The clearances from the bazaar are estimated at about 500 packages per diem, and rates, although not quotably altered, are firmly supported.

COALS are decidedly firmer to-day for distant delivery. Prices at home are advancing, and sellers here have accordingly withdrawn from the market. It is reported that two steamer-cargoes of Davison's January shipment have been bought back by the first sellers at Rs. 16½ per ton, and there is some demand from public companies, who find they can buy here at considerably under first cost at home.

Messrs. C. MARCKS & COMPANY

OF

BOMBAY and POONA,

HAVE the pleasure of announcing that Mr. A. MENIST, Oculist's Optician, of Amsterdam and London, has appointed them AGENTS for the sale of his celebrated PEBBLE SPECTACLES and EYE-GLASSES, BINOCULARS, &c.

Mr. MENIST makes his Frames of Gold and Silver only, which have been found to be the best metals for the purpose, his object being to obtain perfection as nearly as possible, without regard to cost. He does not use steel, for this metal rusts, and the joints become loose, altering the focus of the glasses, and so injuring the eyes ; neither is there any economy in it, for in this climate it corrodes so quickly that it must be often renewed, while Gold or Silver are practically everlasting, and Aluminium cannot be used, for it leaves an indelible mark on the skin wherever it comes in contact with it.

Mr. MENIST'S NON-PRESSURE EYE-GLASSES have a spring so made that it may be twisted in any direction without breaking, and they maintain their position when worn without any pressure or leaving any mark when removed.

His 12-lens "DUCHESSE" are all Achromatic and as powerful as Field Glasses.

His FIELD, MARINE, and OPERA GLASSES may be used for hours without causing the eyes to ache.

Mr. MENIST has left instruments with Messrs. C. MARCKS and Co. which enable them to test each eye separately, for it frequently happens that they differ more or less in power.

MESSRS. C. MARCKS and Co., for the convenience of clients who may not wish to purchase Mr. MENIST'S GLASSES, have also in stock some of their own manufacture, at lower prices, in Gold, Silver, and Steel frames, and though the quality of the pebbles is admittedly not equal to those of Mr. Menist, yet it is very good, and much superior to most of what is sold as the "finest Brazilian Pebbles."

Pamphlets may be had on application.

The Bombay Gazette

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1881.

As we have already stated, Mr. Grant is to be succeeded as Municipal Commissioner of Bombay by Mr. Nugent, but not at once. Mr. Nugent is at present acting Secretary to Government in the General Department, in place of Mr. Peile, who is acting Commissioner in Sind during Mr. Erskine's absence on leave ; and Government wish to keep Mr. Nugent in the Secretariat till Mr. Peile's return in April next, while Mr. Grant leaves by the mail-steamer next Saturday. Accordingly the Town Council will be asked to-day to grant Mr. Nugent two months' leave, and to appoint Dr. Weir to act as Municipal Commissioner during that time. Since the Municipality is doomed to lose the services of Mr. Grant at the very time when the ripe experience he has acquired would render him of most value, a successor must of course be appointed ; and since it is in the nature of things that a Civil Servant with all to learn in regard to matters municipal must have the post, the city is undoubtedly to be congratulated on the fact that a man of the known ability of Mr. Nugent is to be his successor. Again, it may be argued that as Mr. Nugent is not to take up the duties

THE SONTHAL DISTURBANCES.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

ALLAHABAD, JAN. 31.

The Sonthals threaten serious trouble; they are collecting and arming in force, and their attitude is somewhat alarming. Several civil and police officers have been ordered up, and Mr. Monro, Inspector General of Police, leaves to-night to report in connection with the local officers as to what reinforcements are really required. The military preparations as yet known are as follows:—Two companies of native infantry leave Calcutta, one of which goes to Mohespore, the other to Rampore Haut. They will march thence sharp to Dumka. Detachments from the 18th Native Infantry, at Dinapore, and the 2nd Native Infantry, at Cawnpore, are already on their way to the scene of action; while a squadron of the 16th Bengal Cavalry and a company of the 35th Native Infantry are held in readiness at Allahabad.

A curious instance of the care bestowed on the compilation of some official papers is afforded by a general order just issued, in which we are informed under the sub-head "Medals—Afghan," that "with reference to G. O. 144 of 1880, the date of the action at Ali Musjid should be the 21st, and not the 22nd November, 1878."

The official report on the state of the weather and prospects of the crops in the North-West Provinces during the week ended the 24th ultimo states there was no rain during the week. Unirrigated crops were in some places withering up from drought. Frost had damaged arhar and peas in three districts; with this exception, irrigated crops promised well. Fodder was becoming very scarce. The markets continued well supplied, and prices showed a slight tendency to fall. The demand for labour was slackening in Rae Bareli, but continued in Jhansi. With the exception of slight small-pox and measles in places, the general health was good. Cattle-disease continued in Kumaun and had appeared in Agra: it was decreasing in Jhansi.

The revenue of French India for 1881 will amount approximately to £68,828 in English money. Pondicherry towards this total contributes £42,822, Chandernagore £7,319, Karrikal £15,253, Mahe £1,859, and Yanaon £1,572. The expenditure has been so regulated that provision has been made to spend the entire amount; at the same time, whilst the total income will be spent, the local expenditure of some of the above possessions will leave a margin of receipts, whilst in others the expenditure will exceed local revenue. Chandernagore, Karrikal and Mahe are included in the former category, Pondicherry and Yanaon in the latter. The chief items of receipts are the taxes on the introduction and manufacture of arrack, and on the importation of tobacco and betel-nut. The heaviest item of expenditure is the education grant, which is estimated for the year under notice at £6,175; next come the police charges, which are set at £5,113.

WESTWELL AND SMITH, two privates in Her Majesty's 81st Regiment, the Civil and Military Gazette reports, were tried on the 27th ultimo in the Chief Court, Lahore, before Mr. Justice Plowden and a jury, for the culpable homicide of a native named Rullia. The Government Advocate prosecuted: the prisoners were defended by Mr. Gouldsbury. It appears from the facts elicited in evidence that the prisoners with two comrades, Eastough and High, both also privates in the same regiment, which is now stationed at Ferozepur, left camp on the day in question for a day's sport near the village of Ghill, about three miles distant from the city and about double that distance from the cantonments. Westwell carried with him a double-barrelled shot-gun; the other three had fishing-rods only. Westwell, in firing at some wild-fowl across the same pond at which his comrades were fishing, accidentally lodged a few pellets in Eastough and in a native named Hera Singh, who was watching the fishing. The four soldiers almost immediately prepared to leave the village for fear of a disturbance with the natives. On leaving, however, they were followed and surrounded by from fifty to seventy natives (armed some with sickles, others with heavy bamboo sticks, and one, the deceased, Rullia, with a sharp instrument somewhat resembling a spade), who snatched away the fishing-rods, and broke them. Upon this the soldiers made a run for it, followed by the natives. After running about 400 yards, Smith, who was ill and weak with fever, and was consequently some yards in the rear, was captured and held down by three or four natives, one of whom, Rullia, raised his weapon to strike. Smith, on being caught, called out to Westwell, "Fire, or I am done for," and Eastough at the same time bade him fire. Westwell, seeing what he believed to be the imminent danger of his comrade, at once fired at Rullia, lodging the contents of his gun under the right shoulder, and some of the shot penetrating his lungs. He stated that he aimed at the right arm of deceased, intending to disable him only. Deceased died almost instantaneously. Smith joined his comrades, who with some difficulty made their escape and reached the thana, where Westwell and Smith reported all that had taken place, and gave themselves up to the police. Such is the story told by the soldiers, and corroborated in many respects by facts which have come out in evidence. The native witnesses attempted to set up an entirely different story, the principal detail of which was the allegation that the soldiers were only followed by three natives, including Rullia, all of whom were unarmed. Their evidence, however, besides being obviously improbable, was given with so many irreconcileable statements as to be utterly untrustworthy, and was not relied upon by the Government Advocate, who, accepting the main details of the soldiers' story, urged upon the jury that the danger to Smith was not of so imminent a nature as to render it necessary for his safety that Westwell should fire at Rullia, and that even supposing the use of force was justifiable under the circumstances, much less force would have sufficed. In defence, it was argued that the evidence shewed Smith was in imminent danger of life and limb, and that the death of Rullia was justified by the necessity of the case, the legal right of defence of self and others not having been exceeded. The learned judge summed up at considerable length, minutely criticising the details of the evidence, and carefully explaining to the jury the points of law raised by the facts. At the conclusion of his charge the learned judge handed to the jury a paper containing certain questions material to the issue, leaving it to them either to answer the questions, or to find a simple verdict of "guilty" or "not guilty." The jury, after retiring for a few minutes, returned into court with answers to the questions, which amounted to a verdict of "not guilty." The prisoners were immediately released.

The type-writing machine is thus spoken of by the Bombay Guardian:—We have now been using for three years the type-writer with which we were presented by the readers of the Guardian, and our appreciation of it as a labour-saving piece of mechanism is higher now than when we first began to use it. It is a very remarkable invention, and we are more and more astonished at the ingenuity that managed to combine so happily the various very diverse processes involved. We cannot say that it has never bothered us by getting out of order; but generally the difficulty was rectified as soon as the nature of it became manifest. In process of time the operator becomes acquainted with all its complex arrangements, and then he knows what to do when any part of it does not work well. To be obliged to use a pen seems now almost a hardship. People that write much sometimes find that the subserviency of the hand is not equal to the activity of the brain; but with the type-writer the hands are ready for all the demands that may be made upon them.

A Japanese paper says:—While the Russians and Chinese are actively engaged preparing for the strife so confidently anticipated next spring, Japan is also receiving additions to the warlike stores, in which so large an amount of money has already been invested. The s.s. Harter has landed in Yokohama, on Government account, nineteen cases of Norden feldt guns and thirty-two packages of torpedo-apparatus.

The Berlin correspondent of the Morning Post says that, according to private news from Athens, the statue of Minerva recently discovered there is not an original, but a copy of the masterpiece of Phidias.

We often hear of a new cure having been invented for sea-sickness, and we suppose some seven-tenths of the people who ever have to undertake a voyage wish heartily that a real cure, or preventative, could be found. The latest thing spoken of as affording relief and comfort during rough weather at sea is Huston's patent ship's berth. It is described as a berth of the ordinary size, so poised on a universal joint and controlled by india-rubber springs as to always retain a horizontal position, no matter how much the vessel may pitch or roll. The Austrian navy has adopted it for hospital use, and some of the trans-Atlantic passenger steamers have their ordinary cabins fitted with it. Testimonials received by the inventor show that no one need suffer from sea sickness so long as he retains a recumbent position in a Huston's patent berth. Many of our readers would be glad to hear of the P. and O. Company following the example of the Austrian navy and trans-Atlantic passenger lines.

In the recently-published memoirs of Karatygin, the famous Russian actor, will be found the following characteristic anecdote of the late Emperor Nicholas. His Majesty happened one day to be engaged in inspecting a State penitentiary in one of the provincial seats of Government, and took it into his head to question some of the convicts respecting the nature of the offences for which they were suffering punishment. "What are you here for?" he asked of one. "I am innocent, Imperial Majesty," replied the prisoner, falling on his knees; "a victim of false witness! A church was robbed—a beadle knocked on the head—the peasants caught hold of me; and I knew nothing about it." Turning to another, the Czar asked, "And you?" "False witness again, Imperial Majesty. A pedlar was done for, close to my house. I never even dreamt of such a thing." "And you?" said Nicholas, to a third. "Sheer malice, sire. One of my neighbours conveyed a lot of forged notes into my pockets, and hid away a lithographic stone in my bed-room. I am as innocent as an unborn babe." The Emperor, obviously bored by these successive protestations of guiltlessness, cast a glance along the line of prisoners until his eye fell upon a ragged, wretched-looking gipsy, whom he beckoned forward with the words, "Of course you, too, are here on a false charge?" "Not a bit of it, your Majesty," replied the Tsigan; "it is all fair and square as far as I am concerned. I stole a pony from a tradesman." "Stole a pony, did you?" said the Czar with a laugh, and then, addressing the governor of the prison with well-assumed sternness, "Turn that good-for-nothing rascal out of doors. I cannot allow him to remain a minute longer in such honourable and virtuous company, lest he pervert all these good, innocent people!"

An alarming rumour comes from the west coast of South America, communicated by some shipmasters in the employ of the Pacific Steam Navigation Company. It appears that in the not always placid waters of the Southern Pacific "three large empty launches" have been encountered floating about, tenantless, and seemingly having no particular object in view. Met in such a latitude, the empty craft excited some speculation and, it must be added, suspicion. The skippers of the respective steamers passed them by as carefully as if they had been own sisters to the craft in which the Ancient Mariner beheld the phantom couple throwing dice for his worthless life. They would not touch or take them in tow. The assumption is that these erratic launches were torpedo boats sent adrift by the Peruvians with the view of entrapping to destruction some of the Chilian men-of-war in the same way that the Independencia and the Loa were tempted by fruit-boats to submit themselves to the unpleasant process of being blown up. It is not yet known whether any ship captains, attracted by a display of fresh vegetables, have been curious enough to overhaul one of such launches, and whether, in consequence, they have provoked to explosion a charge of dynamite snugly hidden beneath the cabbages; but, in any case, a caution on the subject has been thought advisable on the western coast.

MR. ROBERT KNIGHT'S APPEAL TO THE PRINCES AND PEOPLE OF INDIA.

Native Princes and People of India.—On the eve of my departure from this country to return to India, I was served with a summons to attend the Bow-street Police Office to answer before the magistrate a criminal charge of libel brought against me by the Amir-i-Kabeer of Hyderabad, whom the Foreign Office under Lord Lytton appointed as Co-Regent of that State, in order to fetter the action of the great minister, Sir Salar Jung, and completely check his efforts for the restoration of Berar. Simultaneously with this prosecution, letters have come home from official personages in India urging that the London Statesman should not be permitted to continue such exposures of the conduct of the Indian Government, as have been made by it in the matter of the abolition of the Salt Line, and the treatment of the Native Princes of Rajputana in connection therewith. It was a sure instinct that led my colleague, Lieutenant-Colonel Osborn and myself, to determine to publish a London edition of the Statesman at the very doors of Parliament. The object we had in view has already been largely accomplished. And now this Wikar-ool-Oomrah is put up to prosecute me "in criminals" in criminals! in this country the men whom you know to have devoted their lives to the promotion of a pure and righteous government of India in the interests of our own beloved country and of the vast dependency, the rule of which the Divine Province has confided to us as a trust.

The criminal prosecution which this man has entered against me will, I hope, be made the occasion of showing before Her Majesty's Judges and before all England, the greatness of the cause in which we have enlisted.

The defence will be a very costly one, from the fact that the prosecutor does not appear in the case for examination, and from the great difficulty there will be in dragging from the recesses of the official bureaux the documentary evidence which establishes the accuracy as to fact and the complete honesty of purpose of the article No. 8 in the London Statesman of October 1st on the Restitution of Berar.

I appeal confidently to you, therefore, not to permit the London Statesman to be crushed, as these men are conspiring to crush it.

It is vital to your interests, vital to the interests of the British Crown that we should complete our work of exposure, and you must sustain us in the work.

I ask you to contribute promptly to the formation of a Statesman Defence Fund. Let every one in the country, from the wealthy peasant alike, show his sense of the true character of this prosecution by subscribing to the fund.

I ask the native princes of India to contribute generously towards the fund; and the poorest of the people to send in their mite towards it.

Such an opportunity of so bringing home to the conscience of England the faults of our Government of India under the late régime, that they shall be made impossible in the future may never occur again, and I appeal to you in the interests of yourselves and your successors.

London, Dec. 31st, 1880. R. KNIGHT.

Subscriptions should be sent instantly to my son, Mr. Robert Knight, Statesman Office, Calcutta. By him they will be acknowledged or not according to the desire of the subscribers.

Sir Neville Chamberlain.—His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief has been invited to allow his portrait to be painted, in order that this city may retain a souvenir of his connection with the local army, but he has, in graceful terms, written to the committee formed for the purpose of carrying out the proposal, to say that, while fully conscious of, and grateful for the honor that it is desired to show him, he cannot comply with the request, as his services in connection with the Madras Army have been of a formal character, which do not, in his judgment, call for any memorial.—Madras Mail.

THE PRIVILEGE OF CORRESPONDENTS.

I.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The political letters of "J. M. M." are a valuable addition to our literature. Unlike "G. W. F.," who is lagging behind, and has not yet made up his mind, or come to any decision regarding "one of the most delicate political problems of this generation," we are no wise encumbered in that way. I have heard many a problem called a delicate political one before now by individuals, but have generally found that a thing is delicate in the inverse ratio of the natural sense of the individual. If "G. W. F." has not yet formed a sound opinion on the Irish question, when on earth will he ever be likely to? This problem was not born yesterday. It has long passed the age of teething—it is even now displaying its fangs, and if "G. W. F." still goes on assuming an attitude of expectancy, and waiting for old thread-bare arguments under new forms, which is, I suppose, what he wants, he will find the entire matter, that is to say, the intricate problem, very fairly worked out, and settled we'll hope to his liking, before he has put down on paper, Let x = required argument. There are men who, if their carcases were dissolving to atoms, would still try to reconstruct themselves with arguments. I knew a man so given over to every aspect of each shred of an argument that to expect him to reach a finality of judgment was to expect him to set up depths above the clouds. "J. M. M.," addressing men as he does "who are mainly members of an educated bureaucracy, and whose duty in life is to form calm judgments," does assume that we have arrived at that judgment which "G. W. F." is still groping for. Does "G.W. F." always search for his arguments from the columns of the papers? Has he no opinions of his own, but requires to get them from the brains of other men? "What we want from 'J. M. M.' says 'G. W. F.,' "is argument, not a political address suited to the calibre of the English workingman." We would tell him that his desires are not raised a hand's-breadth in this respect above the workingman's, whose calibre is quite at his own level; for the intelligent electors of the Elgin Burghs even clamoured for that which "G. W. F." is now clamouring for, viz., an argument.

And as for humanitarianism, that slobbering, mawkish passion of the day, it is a spurious and disingenuous sentimentalism, and there are not nine out of ten right-minded Englishmen in India who won't say that "J. M. M.'s" indignant wrath at it is wholly justifiable. It is his inexpressible disgust with those who wink at and excuse such diabolical cruelties as the maiming of domestic animals, and his very shame for the "dignity of human nature," that makes him sigh for the robust severity of the old law, an eye for an eye, to put down such barbarity. We can understand "G. W. F.'s" annoyance at this, and we pity him for it. We will allow that it is, as "G. W. F." says, "wrong to glorify brute force." But does "J. M. M." do so? What do all his letters amount to but a comprehensive condemnation of the brute force of a League that is over-riding the law, and gripping by the throat every decently behaved citizen? No, no, "G. W. F.," we want none of your stale arguments; we prefer our opinions being fairly reproduced, or at any rate the opinions of Conservative-Liberals, as opposed to Radical-Liberals; for these are the sides men will range themselves under in the near future.

II.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—I was somewhat amused to read the letter of your irate correspondent signing himself "G. W. F." which appeared in your issue of the 21st instant. Mr. Maclean needs no defence from me; but having, like him, had some insight into the way the political wires are pulled at home by both parties, I have very great sympathy with the views he expresses. He and I do not hold the same platform; he is a more advanced Conservative than I can claim to be. But I do not hesitate to say this, that the Anglo-Indian, when he returns to England, finds himself at a disadvantage, inasmuch as he cannot bring himself to be the mere partizan of either party; and unless he become so it is hopeless to make any way in public life. It is only in this sense that Mr. Maclean, as I understand him, attempts to hold the balance of blame evenly between both Conservatives and Liberals. I had the good fortune to be a good deal in his society after the last election, and can bear my testimony to the manly independence of Mr. Maclean's political views. If your correspondent wishes to see to what a low level the wire-pullers of both parties have fallen, I would refer him to Colonel Talbot's evidence before the Chester Election Committee; and if a commission is sent out to examine the present Governor of Madras—as in all fairness ought to be done, after Colonel Talbot's exposure—there will be some strange revelations as to our boasted political purity. I cannot, like Mr. Maclean, see my way to joining a Conservative club; but when I witness illustrious statesmen like Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Bright making of India a mere stalking-horse wherewith to injure their political opponents, and to win their own way back to the emoluments and patronage of office, I cannot help signing myself

OPENING UP OF THE SOUTHERN MAHRATTA COUNTRY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—With reference to the letter in to-day's paper by "A. S. M." on the above subject, he and many others will be glad to learn that a memorial praying for the speedy carrying out of the Karwar-Hubli-Gudak Railway has been forwarded to the Secretary of State through the Bombay Government, which authority, it is understood, endorses the prayer of the memorialists. This memorial has received the signature of 3,200 landholders and other residents in the North Canara and Dharwar collectorates, which fact sufficiently proves that the Karwar project has the hearty support of the persons most concerned, the people of the British districts through which the line is to pass. "A. S. M." may well express surprise that the mercantile community of Bombay does not move energetically on behalf of the too-long-delayed and much-needed public work. It may be hoped that the Chamber of Commerce will emulate the magnanimity of the Bombay Gazette—as displayed in your excellent leader of Saturday last—and, abandoning the grievously erring position of 1872, earnestly support the project for direct communication between the Malabar Coast and the Southern Deccan. If the Chamber's Committee has too much mauvaise honte to take this manful step, let "A. S. M." and the many others who think with him get up their own memorial—sharp and practical—and send it to the Secretary of State quickly after the Karwar, already far on its way. There is not a week to be lost.

CASTE DISPUTES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—With reference to an article which appeared in to-day's issue of a contemporary under the head of "Settlement of caste disputes," I regret to understand from various reliable sources that there is hardly any chance of the disputes brought about by the adoption of a lad by the widow of V. J. Sunkersett three years ago being settled.—Yours, &c.,

BOMBAY SMELLS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Will you allow a stranger in Bombay to protest in your columns against the extremely objectionable odours which abound here. On coming in by railway from the North-West, one finds one's sense of smell severely tried near Parel, and equally so near Byculla. Perhaps there are local reasons for this; but in being day daily able to find that the smells seem to have chosen abodes where they thrive. Coming along Marine Lines towards the Fort, they suddenly seem to spring up, as if rejoicing in one part; but Church Gate Street seems in the afternoon to vie with the wholesome and most ill-smelling slums abroad in Cologne. Perhaps Bombay noses are accustomed to these smells, or thrive on them, or surely such as are found in Marine Lines and the Fort would not be tolerated for—well, say a week. I cannot account for such things except by saying the ways of man are wondrous.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.

Miss Clara Hutchinson took her benefit last night, but the attendance was very small, and nothing like what so popular an actress had a right to expect. Miss Hutchinson, of course, took a prominent part throughout the evening. As Nan, "the good-for-nothing," she was frequently applauded, Mr. Turner receiving an equal share of appreciation for his creditable representation of the neglected girl's indulgent guardian. The burlesque "La Sonnambula," kept the audience thoroughly amused, Mr. Turner, as the fair Amina, contributing largely towards the fun. The songs were frequently encored, and the picturesque costumes all that could be desired; but there was a good ground for complaint in the total absence of programmes. This was an omission quite within the control of the management, and should not have been allowed to occur.

Attempted Robbery at Agra.—A robbery of a very daring nature was attempted on the premises of the Agra Bank on the night of the 27th. The centre room of the bank building is over a cellar secured by an iron trap-door. The room is the sitting-room of the manager. A number of men entered it and tried very earnestly to find their way into the cellar, where the bank treasure is deposited. They failed, and, failing, vented their spite on the manager's wardrobe, to which they did considerable damage. How they got in, and how they managed to work without disturbing the manager and the bank guard, are questions the police is trying to solve.—Delhi Gazette.

The prisoner, after stealing the property on the 13th instant, left complainant's protection suddenly. She was sentenced to three months' rigorous imprisonment.

A. during the week ending the 29th instant:—horses, 3 lame, 1 broken knees, and 1 galled back; bullocks, 10 lame, 25 sore necks, 1 emaciated, 12 goading, and 2 overladen. Total number of cases 55; amount of fines, Rs. 77.—Twenty-two bullock-cart drivers were yesterday charged at the instance of Mr. Inspector Jones, of the Executive Police, before Mr. P. Ryan, with cruelty to animals in plying for hire at the bunders when their bullocks were suffering with sore necks. They were fined in sums varying from Rs. 5 to annas 8.

Street Accidents.—Hajam Hajee, a Mussulman syrang, while passing along Bazaar Gate-street was knocked down by a shigram on the 29th instant, fracturing four of his ribs on the left side. HIGH COURT.—JAN. 31.

(Before the Hon'ble Sir Charles Sargent.)

ALLEGED FRAUDULENT PRACTICES OF MARWAREES.

MEGHJEE, alias VELLJEE NARRONJEE VS. VURJA GUJA AND OTHERS.

Mr. Farran, instructed by Messrs. Shapurjee and Thukurdas, on behalf of the plaintiff, applied for a rule nisi calling upon the defendants to show cause why they should not be restrained until the hearing of the suit from parting with or suing upon any notes signed by the plaintiff in favour of, purporting to be signed by him, and why the defendants trading under the name of Toolsa Goola should not be restrained from proceeding with their suit in the Small Causes Court for Rs. 250 against the plaintiff.

The circumstances under which the application was made appear to be peculiar, and afford an insight into the questionable practices resorted to by Marwaree pawn-brokers and money-lenders. The plaintiff is said to be a young man of weak intellect, who is easily led astray and deceived by designing persons. He completed his 18th year about two months ago. It is further said that about two years ago he became acquainted with a young Parsee named Gopal Curmon, who induced him to undertake a project to form a theatrical club in Bombay. On the pretence of enabling plaintiff to raise money for the purpose of starting the club, Gopal took him to the place of business of the defendants at Dhobie Talao, where the defendants induced to sign several blank papers or notes. The first two defendants took possession of the papers, but advanced plaintiff no money in respect thereof. In August, 1879, they caused a suit to be filed in the Small Causes Court against the plaintiff, in the name of certain nominees of theirs, upon a note which, the plaintiff believed, was written upon one of the blank papers signed by him. The plaintiff informed the father of the suit, and the latter saw the first two defendants and was informed by them that they had in their possession or control three notes signed by the plaintiff, and that an aggregate sum of about Rs. 1,425 was due upon the three notes. In order to avoid publicity and annoyance the plaintiff's father, who is a man in good circumstances in life, bought up the alleged claim of the defendants upon the four notes for Rs. 1,400. These notes were made over to him, and the suit was dismissed. He was then assured by the defendants that they never had had any other notes or papers signed by the plaintiff in their possession or under their control. In February, 1880, however, the first two defendants filed a suit against plaintiff in the Small Causes Court upon an alleged promissory note of his, and obtained an ex parte decree against him for Rs. 90. The plaintiff who had no notice of the filing of the suit, was arrested in December last for the amount of this decree. He endeavoured, without success, to have the decree set aside; and his father under protest paid the amount thereof. The first two defendants then gave out that they had promissory notes of the plaintiff to the extent of Rs. 7,000; saying that unless a settlement was come to, they would deliver the notes to Marwarees and others, and would cause suits to be filed upon them by their nominees. The defendants trading under the name of Toolsa Goola had received one of such notes for Rs. 250 from the first two defendants, and had instituted upon it a suit in the Small Causes Court against the plaintiff. They were mere nominees and agents of the other defendants, and had conspired with them to obtain a decree upon the note for Rs. 250, which, the plaintiff believed, was a note written upon one of the blank forms signed by him. He therefore prayed by the present suit that the defendants may be directed to make a full discovery of all promissory notes in their possession bearing the signature of the plaintiff; and to deliver up all such notes in order that they might be cancelled.

His Lordship passed an order that the plaintiff undertaking to pay into court Rs. 250, the amount of the claim in the Small Causes Court, a rule nisi should issue, as applied for by Mr. Farran, requiring the defendants to show cause why the suit filed by the third and fourth defendants in the Small Causes Court should not be withdrawn and filed in this court. Interim injunction to issue on plaintiff bringing into this court the amount of the claim made in the Small Causes Court suit.

THE KOLHAPUR CONSPI

(FROM OUR OWN REPORTER.)

TWENTIETH DAY, JANUARY 28.

The approver Ramjan's cross-examination was continued.—The committing magistrate told me I would be offered the benefit of an approver if I would tell truly all that I knew. Vittu Kulwadi brought a cupful of bats' oil to the house of Rambhut. At that time Rambhut and I were sitting in his house. I do not know what the oil was used for, nor did I enquire about that. I do not know if Ganoo was paid or not Rs. 25 by Rambhut. Ganoo never asked Rambhut for the money he was promised in my presence. Pawalla Wani used to be accompanied by a man, but I do not know that man's name. That man never came to the house of Rambhut, but he came with Pawalla Wani to the place where they went to dig for hidden treasure. Rambhut did not say anything to me about the proof of the extraordinary power of the spell of the vastad (master) he found in the person of Khiru. They dug for the first time to find hidden treasure at the Tambiali tank, and for the last time at Bramheshwar Bag. Ganoo showed me the letter he had received from Rambhut when he was at Karadge. I used to hear Rambhut say to Nana Sahib that he was searching for money, and then would send him off to Nepaul. I cannot remember if any one else spoke anything to Nana Sahib about sending him to Nepaul. In my presence Nana Sahib was told that he was to carry a letter to Chima Sahib Maharaj at Nepal, but the letter was not read to him in my presence. I have said before the committing magistrate that two swords were taken at the time for getting them polished, that I and Rambhut both went together; but now I say one sword was taken by Rambhut and me together, and the second by me alone to get it polished. The latter statement is true.

A spontaneous statement was here made by Rambhut. He said.—I was shown Shaik Allum and Shaik Abdul by the police, and they advised me to state before the committing magistrate that the subedar-major and Rangaya and the others were included in the plot. I was ill-treated by the police when I was in their custody. The truth is, I am a poor mendicant. I have never seen the subedar-major; when the regiment was drawn up I could not recognize the subedar-major and Rangaya, as I was not acquainted with them.

Cross-examination of the approver continued.—When Rambhut came back from the infantry lines to the tank, away from the place where we (I and Aba Madar) were sitting, he was accompanied by one man from the infantry lines, but who he was I do not know, as I was at the distance of fifty or sixty yards from the place where they were talking with each other. On our arrival at the house of Khiru Rambhut told me the man that was speaking with him in the Residency tank was the Konkony subedar-major of the Kolhapur Infantry. I cannot tell the caste of the man I saw speaking with Rambhut near the Residency tank, nor do I know if he was young or old. I cannot say whether the individual I saw was a man or a woman. I did not see Dhondu Kulkarni at the time of digging for the hidden treasure. I have seen him at Rambhut's before the owl was killed. I saw him two or three times. I cannot remember how long his visits were continued, nor do I know when he came for the first time. The same is the case with his other two visits. I have never heard any one speak with him; but Rambhut and Dhondopant addressed each other by signs on the palms of their hands. I saw Dhondopant with a sword in his hand on the Sunday, 7th November. I cannot recognize the sword in this court, as it was dark at the time I saw it. At the time when we learnt from Tatia Khoja and Rama Mali that all the assembled Europeans had gone home Laxuman was with us. The bundle of swords I tied at the house of Rambhut was not opened prior to my taking it out and showing it to the fouzdar. When we left the house of Khiru no one besides myself had any weapon with him. I had a bundle of swords on my shoulder. I do not know who brought the bundle of swords to the house of Khiru from that of Rambhut. I am not sure that I stated before the committing magistrate that the bundle of swords was brought to the house of Khiru by Vittu Brahmin. I did not see Tatia come to Rambhut till the digging for treasure was going on. I was not acquainted with him before I saw him at Rambhut's house. I saw Mallari come from time to time to the house of Rambhut during the last year; sometimes he came in the morning, and sometimes in the evening. He was implicated in the plot. On Sunday (the 7th November) I did not see Mallari till I went to the house of Khiru. I did not hear Mallari speaking with any body while he was on the house of Khiru. The pistol was in his hand. I cannot recognize it now. I have never seen him before with a pistol in his hand. Mallari spoke something about the war: that he would give any weapons he could; but he (Mallari) had no weapons. Rambhut told me that Rambhut tell me anything about Mallari's bringing any weapons. I and Rambhut once went to him; but he was not at home. Rambhut did not tell me that some swords he had with him belonged to Mallari. A pair of pistols is shown to me, but they were quite useless. Rambhut, myself, and some other two men were present when Rambhut showed me the two pistols. This was after Dassara and before the Devali. I cannot remember what became of those pistols. Jagia met nothing about giving men for raising a rebellion. I did not see him anywhere on Sunday (7th November). After Narayenbhut's arrival from Kisarul I did not hear Vittu Kulwadi say that he would give some men; nor before that. I did not see him on the Sunday (7th November). I have never seen Sakharam at the house of Rambhut. I saw Yassim once at the house of Rambhut, seven or eight days before the Sunday (7th November). Balajee got two annas to Yassim to buy caps for a gun. He asked Rambhut for two annas. Rambhut gave two annas to him, as he had paid Yassim from his own pocket. I do not know what Rambhut wanted those caps for, or who was to use the caps.

CHRONOGRAPH WATCHES FOR RACES.

THE new Pocket CHRONOGRAPH WATCH, INVENTED and MANUFACTURED by Messrs. F. L. & Co., is not only the BEST, but also the CHEAPEST ever offered for sale.
The Watch had a marked success at the Bombay Races in January last, and also at the Secunderabad, Mhow, Meerut, and Calcutta Races, and Gentlemen connected with Racing will be glad to learn that a fine supply is again to hand.

IN GERMAN SILVER CASE	... ...	...Rs.	80
" FINE "	"	... "	85
" 18-CARAT GOLD "	"	... "	150

Description:—The Watch is middle-size, keyless, patent lever, crystal glass front and back, going 32 hours.
There are two dials, one in front with the hour, minute, and short second hands, the other is on the back of the watch divided in seconds and fractions of a second. Over it runs the long second or chronograph hand. This dial is cut out from the centre up to near the seconds, having the whole chronograph mechanism visible to the eye.
On pressing on the winding nut the second hand will start from the fig. 12, on pressing again the hand will stop immediately, on pressing a third time the hand will fly back to the starting point. In a case of false start this peculiarity of the watch is invaluable.
We guarantee the watch to regulate within a few seconds in 24 hours, the difference in time for 5 minutes being therefore only from 0·02 to 0·05 of a second, a result impossible to arrive at with chronographs going only from 15 minutes to 2 hours.

PROVISION FOR OLD AGE COMBINED WITH A PROVISION FOR THE WIDOW AND ORPHAN.
EXAMPLE.
A CIVILIAN, European or Native, aged 20 next birthday, wishes to lay apart a sum of about THIRTEEN RUPEES a month in such a way that his savings will be securely invested until the time of his retirement from Service; and that should he die beforehand, a provision will be secured for his relations. By payment of a sum of Rs. 163-0-0 per annum (or at the rate of about Rs. 13-0-0 per mensem) as the premium for an endowment Assurance, he will become entitled to Rs. 5,000 on attaining age 55; and should he die before attaining that age—even after payment of only one year's subscription—the full sum of Rs. 5,000 will be paid to his representatives. [Vide Table III. of Prospectus.]
THE SAME PROVISION, IF COMMENCED

at age 25 would cost about	FIFTEEN RUPEES a month;
at age 30	EIGHTEEN RUPEES a month;
at age 35	TWENTY-ONE RUPEES a month
at age 40	TWENTY-EIGHT RUPEES a month;
at age 45	FOURTY-ONE RUPEES a month;

The rates for other Ages, also for Endowments payable at Ages 45, 50, and 60, and all further information, may be obtained on application Premiums can be paid half-yearly, quarterly, or monthly, at slightly increased rates.
There is an obvious advantage in effecting Investments of this nature early in life:—by delay the rate of subscription increases:—death may occur before the intended provision is made:—or health may fail and render the life ineligible for Assurance.
